

ALCOHOL BEVERAGE CONTROL ADMINISTRATION

The sale of alcoholic beverages (Distilled Spirits, Wine and Malt Beverages) was passed in September of 2012. Prior to and following such a vote, there are always concerns as to how the availability of alcohol will have an effect on crime in the area. The statistics below show the number of types of offenses that involved alcohol in 2015.

The La Grange Police Department is responsible for overseeing the policing, administrative duties and collection of the associated Regulatory Fees. Licensees generally pay an initial annual fee with their application and on an annual basis. In addition, restaurants and retail stores pay a 5% quarterly Regulatory Fee based on the gross sales of alcohol less one fourth of their annual/renewal fee. The following table details the revenues generated for the City during 2015.
